

Results are abbreviated, faceted dot-whisker plots that communicate just the effect of the particular neighbor prompt. Full results are available in the replication file.
 Note: each dot and whisker is annotated with the number of observations from the statistical model.